TRIBUTE TO KNIGHTLY LEE.

A Packed House Heard the Andrews Lecture.

THE AUDIENCE ENTHUSIASTIC.

An Ovation Tendered the Speaker at the Close—An Occasion to be Cherished in Memory.

Those who went to the Normal and Industrial College last night expecting to hear a great lecture were in nowise disappointed. Handling his subject with the luminous grasp that comes only through mastery President Andrews outlined the great character of Lee in the clear, incisive, picture-bearing language of the thinker. There was no fulsome or indiscriminate praise but that noble rendering of bare justice by one great mind to the motives, the trials, the achievements of another great mind that dwarfs mere praise and makes it to appear paltry by comparison.

President Andrews is most impressive on the platform. Of commanding figure and with the soldierly bearing learned in front of the army of Northern Virginia, with the sharply chiseled features of the man of thought, he attracts even before he has uttered a word.

The lecture was not merely an eulogy of Lee. The drama of the civil war played itself out again with the illustrious leader of the army that was overpowered but never conquered as the central figure. It was impossible not to feel a wish that every wearer of the gray might hear this magnificent vindication of their old commander, a vindication that, sooner or later, must be that of history.

Speaking of the contemporary view of Lee the lecturer said that all unbiased critics admitted that in him there had arisen another mighty military commander.

Speaking of Gettysburg he said that if the subordinates of Lee had stood by him the battle would probably have had a different issue. To those who criticized Lee's plan of battle it should be said that the formation used at Gettysburg was almost identical with that employed by Von Moltke at Sadowa.

Incomparably fine was the speaker's characterization of the series of titanic struggles between Grant and Lee; "At the wilderness, at Spotsylvania, at Cold Harbor Grant threw his ponderous battering-ram against the lines of Lee only to find them immovable as a stone wall. In nearly every instance the southerner proved himself the better man. But his lines grew ever longer and ever thinner and his men were not able from sheer hunger to use their muskets as clubs and they must be so used for there was no ammunition."

The speaker said that Lee's greatness was due to three things, the first being his unmatched character. When in this connection he quoted the immortal lines of Mallory to Launcelot, "The courtliest knight that ever bore a shield" the audience almost rose at the speaker.

The second cause of Lee's greatness was his tireless and irresistible energy. He showed how at nearly every point he anticipated and checkmated Grant. Referring to the fact that Napoleon's later reverses were attributed by his apologists to advancing age, he pointed out that Lee was older when the war began by ten years than Napoleon when he met his first reverse.

The third cause of Lee's greatness was that he was a very brave, but not a rash or foolhardy man. Of his bravery the speaker noted the instance where his staff had to hold Lee's horse to prevent his leading the storming corps at the "bloody angle" at Spotsylvania. But Lee had more than mere personal bravery; he had that high moral courage that enables a general to give battle boldly and risk all on one supreme venture when occasion demand it. Mr. Andrews pointed out in this connection the difference between Lee and certain other generals, as Hooker, who had the physical but not the moral courage necessary to a great commander.

Not the least telling part of the lecture was the speaker's reference to the Lost Cause. He declared that in a sense it was not and never could be a lost cause: that shortly after the civil war a remarkable series of decisions of the Supreme Court guaranteed to the states many of the very rights for which the south contended in the civil war. He added that if these decisions had been rendered prior to 1860 there would probably have been no civil war.

The speaker's closing apostrophe to Lee was quite too fine to give in a mutilated form. At the close the eminent

A Correction from Mr. Parker.

Referring to a paragraph published in this paper some days ago to the effect that Mr. Boone, of Durham, candidate for solicitor, and Mr. Parker, of Graham, candidate for judge, had formed a combination, Mr. Parker writes as follows:

Will you do me the kindness to say in your paper that I have not formed a combination with any one, and that I would not, even if I knew I could thereby secure the nomination, and that the nomination would result in my election as judge. I know of Mr. Boone's candidacy only through the newspapers and common report; he has, I take it, heard in the same way that my name would likely be before the democratic judicial convention of this district. For all that I know, he is as averse to combinations or trades to secure a nomination as I am, and knowing him as I do I feel quite sure that he would not enter into any combination even to secure the nomination and election.

Yours truly,
E. S. Parker.

The above is published with pleasure, as the Telegram had no intention of doing either gentleman an injustice.

IS MCKINLEY WEAKENING?

Charged that "Peace at any Price" Crowd Has Captured Him.

SPEAKER REED SAID TODAY

That Congress Would Adjourn by the Middle of April—All Bills Now
Well Under Way.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, March 16.—A Washington special to the Evening World says: President McKinley is seemingly weakening before the money power. The impression is growing that we are going to have peace if we have to crawl on our knees before Spain to get it. The "peace-at-any-price" crowd has apparently captured him. There is now unhappily ample reason to look for a fulfillment of the deep-rooted misgivings as to the form in which the President will "intervene" in Cuba.

The utterance of General Grosvenor in which he says that there will be no war with Spain and that he believes that Spain will make compensation if she is liable for the Maine disaster is now accepted as inspired by the President.

WHEN CONGRESS ADJOURNS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 16.—Speaker Reed said today that Congress would adjourn by the middle of April. Arrangements are making to that end. The appropriation bills are well under way now and several have already been passed. The edict has gone forth that there will be no currency and river and harbor bills nor bankruptcy legislation at this term. There is nothing Congress can do after passing the money bills if Cuba is sidetracked.

BOARD OF INQUIRY AT KEY WEST

Popular Excitement Increased By Their Return.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, Mar. 16.—The court of inquiry arrived here early this morning. No explanation is given of the sudden return. The unexpected return sent a thrill through Key West. All is expectation and suspense. The reticence of the members of the court, their grave, inscrutable faces revealing only the shadow of the awful responsibility has aggravated the general excitement.

BLOODY SHOOTING AFFAIR.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

John Eaton Shoots Anderson Parker
in the Abdomen.

A serious shooting affray occurred in Belev's Creek township late Sunday evening in which a young man named John Eaton shot Anderson Parker through the hand and in the lower part of the abdomen.

Parker went to the house of Eaton's father and tried to engage in a difficulty with some of Eaton's brothers. They refused to enter into any controversy and Parker went to the roadside and pelted the house with stones. Later he went to house and began to punch the window panes out with his pistol. Young Eaton seized his gun, ran out and fired with the above result.

The ball entered the abdomen and has not yet been located by the attending physicians. Parker is in a critical condition.—Winston Journal.

WILL REPORT THIS WEEK

Friday or Saturday Says Secretary Long.

HAVANA CORROBORATES HIM

Senator Mason Gives Out a Signed Statement in Which he Tells a Great Deal he Does Not Know

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 16.—Secretary Long said today that the Maine court of inquiry would report this week, probably Friday or Saturday. To meet the exigencies which will immediately follow the publication of the report there is redoubled activity in both the army and navy departments.

HAVANA CORROBORATES.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, March 16.—The indications are that the naval board's report on the Maine disaster goes north within three days. It is possible that a partial statement may be sent north tomorrow by the Steamer Olivette. Despite the sensational insinuations of Commander Potter that the board is unduly influenced by Chadwick the board's report is sure to be honest.

MASON'S STATEMENT.

Washington, March 16.—Senator Mason has given out the following signed statement:

Much, but not all, depends upon the report of the board of inquiry. It may free Cuba without war. The Maine disaster is a separate matter. If it was an accident we ought not to ask an indemnity; if it was blown up from the outside we cannot in honor demand a cash indemnity. The Spanish flag would be humiliated by yielding territory, not to us, but to Cubans. Leaving the Maine out we have sufficient reasons for demanding the freedom of Cuba. There need be no war if the Maine incident is eliminated. Cuba will be free of itself if we grant belligerent rights so they can trade with us, borrow money, make seamen sailors instead of pirates and stop interfering. Recognizing the independence of Cuba will solve the question.

A GREAT STRIKE AHEAD.

Some 20,000 Men in Bituminous Region Will Be Idle.

Cleveland, O., Mar. 15.—Concerning the possibility of another great strike of coal miners, Thomas Young, manager of the M. A. Hanna Coal Company, extensive operators in Pennsylvania, is quoted as saying today: "A strike involving about 20,000 miners will probably soon be in full swing in Central Pennsylvania. The operators declare they will not pay the Chicago scale, and the miners announce their intention to strike. There will be a tremendous rush for coal with the opening of navigation on the lakes. It is probable that the Hocking Valley operators will sign the scale rather than lose their share of the spring business."

SHERIFF KILLED.

The Negro Who Shot Him Slain by
the Sheriff's Deputy.

Jacksonville, March 15.—At DeFuniak Springs today, Sheriff Manning, of Walton county, in attempting to arrest Arthur Perry, a negro, wanted for assault upon another of his race, was killed, the negro losing his life in the encounter.

The sheriff and Deputy Wickersham went to the house where the negro was sleeping. The negro drew a pistol from beneath the coverlet and fired four shots. The sheriff emptied his pistol, and Wickersham also took part in the affair, two of his bullets lodging in the negro's body. The sheriff was struck in the stomach and lived only a few hours.

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received

WE WILL MANAGE OUR OWN.

The health of His Holiness, the Pope, is not very good. He need not worry himself. The United States are quite able to manage their affairs without any suggestions from the Vatican. His Holiness is practically a prisoner in his own country because of the attempts of the Vatican to interfere in temporal affairs. He has been given very plainly to understand by united Italy that his advice is neither necessary nor desired. It should be a useful hint. We do not believe in making war on any man in this country because of his religious beliefs. We also do not believe in foreign potentates, of church or state, meddling in our affairs. Cardinal Rampolla seemed surprised that a report should have been circulated that the Vatican had interceded in behalf of Cuba. Such intercession would have done His Holiness honor. So much can not be said of his intercession in behalf of Spain. It is quite a matter of indifference to us on this side of the water whether the Spanish dynasty rise or fall; as much a matter of indifference as are the wishes or opinions of His Holiness in the matter. We believe American Catholics to be Americans first and Catholics afterward and that they will shoot no less accurately because the Spaniard crosses himself before eating his dinner or blowing up a battleship.

Elsewhere appears a letter of "Citizen" urging that everybody "get together" and cease "abusing populists." So far as this paper is concerned it has "abused" nobody. But if getting together means a little matter of bargain and sale with populist leaders then we are frank to say we prefer to dwell apart. Out of attempted co-operation between the two parties with two sets of leaders can come nothing but bitter recrimination, disorganization and ultimate defeat for democracy. There were never two drivers yet could keep a fractious team in the road.

The report that Austria is "bringing great pressure to bear on European powers" as told in yesterday's dispatches, to prevent interference by this country in Cuban affairs will not do the cause of Spain any good. Austria would do well to look after her own loosened joints. If handwriting on the wall is any longer trustworthy the day is not far distant when what is now Austria will be a wriggling group of petty principalities.

The bars as being chiefly concerned did well to take prompt action to prevent the removal of the public building and the federal court business from here to Winston. The matter should not be allowed to go by default. There is enough public spirit here to see that the claims of Greensboro are properly presented.

If the government wants a place further east than the Chickamauga battle field on which to encamp the regulars it can have miles and miles of mountains or sand flats or ozone pine forests, as it wishes, in this good old state.

The unseemly affront of the Washington Post Almanac in saying that another than the Honorable Mr. Ayer was auditor in this state is sure to call forth an epistolary protest, bristling with some prickly sarcasms, from that youthful statesman and discriminating critic.

The congressional notice sent out that the seed supply of the government is exhausted indicates that war appropriations have been allowed to encroach upon the funds of the nation's chief gardener.

Despite the presence of Rev. Baylus Cade in the gubernatorial sanctum there is as yet no noticeable odor of sanctity about the language of His Excellency.

Is there any connection between Secretary Long's declaration that we are ready for war and the statement that the board of inquiry will speedily report?

We quit playing to the galleries in this country and get down to business when it becomes necessary.

Spain should have learned long ago that protests do not carry nearly so far as dollars.

Employment might be found for General Weyler's mouth in the Philippine islands.

TO STOP CIGARETTE USE.

Gov. Bradley Has for Signature a Bill of Drastic Provisions.

Louisville, March 14—The governor of Kentucky has before him for consideration the most remarkable product of the legislative session. The bill provides that it shall be unlawful "for any person to sell, barter, or loan or give, to make, fabricate, or manufacture, to have on his premises, in his possession, or under his control, a cigarette. It shall be unlawful for any person to have on his premises, in his possession, or under his control any substance or material out of which any part of such cigarette could be made, with the knowledge or purpose that at any time such substance or material might become a factor in such cigarette. Any person who shall violate the law, or shall evade it, shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100, or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than five nor more than fifty days, or both." It is said the Governor may permit it to become a law.

A Home Enterprise.

Mr. Editor:—There are some things that we, as citizens of Greensboro, should consider. After inviting people to our town to invest their cash here and become tax paying citizens, we should treat them kindly in patronizing their enterprises in so far as is practicable.

This my twentieth year with you and I feel at home here and have bought much flour of best brands, paying as high as $4 per sack. I have been using "Purity" from Watson's mill and find it to be equal to the best or rather our bread is superior. Please try one sack and be your own judge and we are willing to hear from you.

It Will be a Triumph.

London, March 15—The Standard, reviewing editorially all aspects of the Cuban affair, this morning says: "It will be a genuine triumph of statesmanship if President McKinley, who has hitherto shown conspicuous caution and judgment, can succeed in preventing war."

TO USE THE $50,000,000.

National Defense Appropriation, War or No War.

Washington, March 15—The war department is engaged in a generous rivalry with the navy department in its active preparations, for the national defense of competition will be determined largely by the division of the $50,000,000 emergency appropriation. It has been determined that no arbitrary division of available funds should be made but that the expenditures should be made in such places and for such purposes as immediate needs require. It is probable that if the danger of war becomes less imminent a large part of the emergency fund will be employed for increasing the efficiency of the army and for constructing the new military coast defenses.

A Plea for Co-operation.

Editor Telegram:—If the democratic platform was right as adopted in the national convention in 1892 it is wrong now. It was a platform that Ben Hill, of New York, and others like him could stand on without reservation; it was a platform that the true populist refused to accept; it was a platform full of ambiguities, and susceptible of all manner of constructions. Cleveland claimed no violation of it when he held both branches of the national legislature by the throat and demanded the repeal of the "silver purchasing clause."

The continual abuse of the populist is now wrong on the part of democrats, unless they were right then. People who desire the same ideas enacted into law, should not quarrel bitterly over specifications. If the populists have renovated the democratic party, why blame them? If for a time evil consequences have followed, who is most to blame?

"Let him that is innocent cast the first stone." This is the time when we need a "long pull, a strong pull; pull all together." So stop wrangling and wasting time in abuse, and get down to work. Get down to work that will unite the forces which desire good government.

Shall North Carolina remain a slop trough for swine?

If wisdom prevails among the leaders of the democratic and populist parties after the next election, we may have cause to rejoice.

Tonsillitis

Tonsillitis Can Be Cured.
Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will do it.

Eagle, Iredell Co., N. C.,
December 10, 1897.
For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which, every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything and could take no solid food. Last spring he took one-half dozen bottles of Mrs.
Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled with the Wash, and it cured him. He has not had a spell since.

The Lamp
that lights the way to Good Health
is a bottle of the greatest of all blood purifiers - Johnston's Sarsaparilla.
QUART BOTTLES.
This great blood purifier and nerve tonic cures disorders by removing from the system, the conditions which produce them. It expels all poison and impurity from the blood. It acts upon the nerves as a stimulant, particularly upon those nerves belonging to the great organs of the body; therefore, it causes the heart to beat with greater force, the lungs to take in more oxygen and to expel more carbonic acid; it induces the kidneys to send off more of the poisonous ex-cretions from the blood; the bowels to have more regularity and healthfulness in their action; the sweat glands to throw out more impurities.
Our illustrated book of 30 pages will tell you what is the matter and what to do. Its free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

Baby With Bottle on Bicycle.

Roundsman Lake of the bicycle squad saw two bundles on the steps at the Hahnemann Hospital at Park avenue and Sixty-eighth street as he was riding by last night, and on investigation found them to contain a three-weeks-old girl foundling and some baby clothes. The child was crying but quieted when furnished with a nursing bottle in the hospital.
Lake carried her to the East Sixth-seventh street station on his wheel,
and from there to Bellevue Hospital,
the infant sucking contentedly on the bottle all the way. - New York Sun.

IT ALL WILL COME OUT RIGHT.

Whatever is a cruel wrong,
Whatever is unjust,
The honest years that speed along
Will trample in the dust
In restless youth I railed at fate
With all my puny might,
But now I know if I but wait
It all will come out right.

Though vice may don the judge's crown
And play the censor's part,
And fact be cowed by falsehood's frown,
And nature ruled by art,
Though labor toils through blinding tears,
And idle wealth is might,
I know the honest, earnest years
Will bring it all out right.

Though poor and loveless creeds may pass
For pure religion's gold,
Though ignorance may rule the man,
While truth meets glances cold,
I know a law supreme, sublime,
Controls us with its might,
And in God's own appointed time
It all will come out right.
- Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

BEFORE THE RAILROADS.

When Philadelphia Was the Greatest City
In the American Colonies.

In 1774 Philadelphia was the largest town in the American colonies. Estimates of the population, which are all we have, differ widely, but it was probably not far from 80,000. A single city now has a larger population than all the colonies possessed in 1774, and there are in the United States today 104 cities and towns of over 80,000 inhabitants.
Figures alone, however, cannot express the difference between those days and our own. Now a town of 80,000 people is reached by railroads and telegraphs.
It is in close touch with all the rest of the world. Business brings strangers to it constantly, who come like shadows and so depart, unnoticed, except by those with whom they are immediately concerned. It was not so in 1774, not even in Philadelphia, which was as nearly as possible the central point of the colonies as well as the most populous city.

Thanks to the energy and genius of Franklin, Philadelphia was paved, lighted and ordered in a way almost unknown in any other town of that period. It was well built and thriving. Business was active, and the people were thrifty and prosperous and lived well. Yet, despite all these good qualities, we must make an effort of the imagination to realize how quietly and slowly life moved then in comparison to the pace of today.

There in Philadelphia was the center of the postal system of the continent,
and the recently established mail coach called the "Flying Machine," not in jest but in praise, performed the journey to New York in the hitherto unequaled time of two days. Another mail at longer intervals crept more slowly to the south. Vessels of the coastwise traffic or from beyond seas came into port at uncertain times and after long and still more uncertain voyages.
The daily round of life was so regular and so quiet that any accident or any novelty drew interest and attention in a way which would now be impossible. - Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in Scribner's.

The Original Organ Grinder.

When barrel organs, once the usual accompaniment of the magic lantern,
came into use, a native of the province of Tende was one of the first who traveled about Europe with this instrument.
In his peregrinations he collected money enough to enable him to purchase from the king of Sardinia the title of count of the country where he was born
- for which, probably, in a time of war
he did not pay above 1,000 guineas.

With the remainder of his money he purchased an estate suitable to his rank and settled himself peaceably for the remainder of his days in his mansion.

In the entrance hall of his dwelling he hung up his magic lantern and his organ facing the door, there to be carefully preserved till they moldered to dust, and he ordered by his will that any one of his descendants who should cause them to be removed should forfeit his inheritance and his patrimony revert to the nearest heir, or, in failure of a successor, to the hospital of Tende.

Only a few years ago the organ and lantern were still to be seen carefully preserved. - Pearson's Weekly.

Explained.
"Who is that stout lady over there?"
"That's Mrs. Spriggins of the Ladies' Whist club. She's the only woman in the club who never asked, 'What is trumps?'"
"Quite remarkable!"
"Yes. She has some kind of an impediment in her speech that prevents her from pronouncing words that begin with t." - Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An Omitted Particular.

"These here city folks may be purty smart in some ways," said Uncle Reuben, "but they're away behind us Poke-berry county people in one respect."
"What's that?" asked his nephew.

"Why, these here - guideposts you have on your crossroads tell which directions the streets is in all right, but I notice it never says how far it is to
'em." - Chicago Post.

Either Way.

Mrs. Gray - You say Mrs. Greene disagreed with everything I said? Just like her! She never is on the right side of any question.

Mrs. Brown - You misunderstood me.
I said she agreed with everything you said.

Mrs. Gray - H'm! That's a way she has of currying favor. - Boston Transcript.

Baltimore is a greatly larger estate
now than it was when first it became a royal residence. To the original 10,000 or 11,000 acres were soon added the 6,000 acres of the adjoining Birkhall estate. Then in 1875 the forest of Ballouchie was purchased - another 10,- 000 acres - and there have since been more recent acquisitions.

Some of the hacks acted "foxy" last night. The managers sold round trip tickets to the Normal, cash in advance, but failed to show up at the college on the return trip. Quite a crowd had to foot it to town though the mud.

Hear Rev. Mr. Fry at Centenary church tonight. The meeting last night and today was greatly enjoyed by those present. Mr. Fry is a most earnest and forceful speaker, a thoroughly consecrated man, and it will do you good to hear him.

BAR HELD A MEETING.

Committee Appointed to Draft a Memorial.

The Greensboro bar held a meeting this morning in regard to the proposed removal of the federal court to Winston. The meeting was held in the office of Boyd & Brooks, most of the bar being present. The following committee was appointed to draft a memorial and take other necessary steps toward preventing the removal: L. M. Scott, Thomas Settle, W. P. Bynum, Jr., A. L. Brooks, T. J. Shaw and Chas. M. Stedman. It is probable that a meeting of the Industrial and Immigration Association will shortly be called to consider the matter and will co-operate with the bar in presenting the claims of Greensboro to the committee of Congress in due time and form.

PURNELL WILL PRESIDE.

Simonton Will Hear the Stanley Bond Case in April.

Clerk Trogon, of the federal court, has received a letter from Judge Simonton stating that Judge Purnell, of Raleigh, will be assigned to hold the regular April term of federal court here.

If Ewart is confirmed meantime, however, he may hold the term. Judge Simonton will come here himself on Monday, April 11th, to give a hearing in the Stanley bond case and some other important cases. A warm fight may be expected in the bond case.

ENJOYED THE TRIP.

A Talk With President McIver Since The Return.

The senior class of the State Normal and Industrial College, who returned night before last from Washington, thoroughly enjoyed their trip. In a conversation with the Telegram man today Dr. McIver, the President, said:

"Nothing happened to mar the pleasure of the trip. Numerous courtesies were shown to the party by our representatives in Washington. A half dozen North Carolinians met us upon our arrival and some representative of the state residing in Washington were with us nearly all the time.

"Besides attentions from Senators Butler and Pritchard, the latter of whom secured a special reception to the party by the president, Mrs. Butler gave the class a delightful reception and Mrs. Vance, who assisted Mrs. Butler in receiving, also secured a special reception by Mrs. McKinley and the president. So we had the honor of meeting the president twice in the same day.

"The new minister from Spain made his first visit to the White House just as we were leaving.

"Mrs. Vance, who loves everything connected with North Carolina, and is especially interested in the state's college for women, did many things to add to the pleasure and profit of our visit."

No doubt many lasting impressions were made on the minds of the members of the class by incidents connected with this trip. One peculiarity of the senior class this year is that every congressional district of North Carolina is represented in it.

MARRIED IN BATIMORE.

Miss Rosa Hamner and Mr. P. V. Carter, of this City.

A marriage which is a surprise to their many friends in Greensboro was solemnized in Baltimore Monday evening at 5 o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Rosa Hamner, the well known and popular milliner on West Market street and P. V. Carter, the well known clothing drummer.

Miss Hamner had gone north ostensibly to buy millinery goods and Mr. Carter, after the traveling season, was in Baltimore just to look after the trade, and as our informant says, they met "by accident on purpose," and got married.

Our heartiest congratulations are extended them with best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Friends' Meeting Closed.

The series of meetings which have been in progress at the Friends' church for the past ten days closed last night. Miss Armitage did faithful and effective work and those whose good fortune it was to attend these meetings say that much good was accomplished. Miss Armitage goes from here to High Point where she will attend the Christian Endeavor state convention, which begins there on Friday of this week.
